Dear Ron,

Jerry Ray tells me that James is dealing with NBC for an appearance. If it goes through, it will help no one but the NSRP, for he will not get a cent and it is solely to get some money for his lawyers.

As of a few days ago, it was to be $10,000 for 15 minutes, with $500 for each additional minutes. Jerry knows that if they'll pay anything, they'll pay more.

This appears to have been approved by a judge also.

It suggests it would be worse than a waste of time to talk to NBC about the Agnew angle. Besides, the nets have fallen into line anyway.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
